Discipleship

Read and Reflect: Jonah 1 and 2

Use any of the following questions to help you as a group to get to grips with what this passage means for your group today

- Why did Jonah run away? (Leaders: not because he was scared of what the people of Nineveh would do to him, but because he thought God would be lenient with them when Jonah thought they should be judged.)
- God catches up with Jonah by sending a great storm 1v4. Has anyone ever had an experience when they have felt God was blocking their way?
- How do you think Jonah felt when he was inside the fish?
- Why is it that we so often take so long before we pray?
- In the end Jonah does preach in Nineveh and they do repent. Should we expect people to repent today?

Evangelism

- Maybe you have been in a situation of great despair, did you turn to God? Did you pray? What was the result?

Ministry

- Share your own frustrations or fears of witnessing.
- Pray for one another for boldness.
